THREE VIRGINIA EDUCATORS TEAM UP TO WRITE SCHOOL LEADERSHIP BOOK

Three experienced Virginia educators have teamed together and pooled their expertise for a new school leadership book called People First! The School Leader's Guide to Building and Cultivating Relationships with Teachers. People First! is a concise, people-centered guide for school leaders who want to create good relationships with their teachers and increase student achievement.

Co-authors Jennifer Hindman, Angela Seiders, and Leslie Grant are all experienced educators who currently work with other principals, schools, and districts to increase student achievement. Jennifer Hindman currently works at the School University Research Network, a partnership with 26 Virginia school systems. Angela Seiders, a middle school principal of an award-winning school, has been recognized twice by her school system's PTA as the middle school principal of the year. Leslie Grant is also a former teacher and currently teaches in the teacher preparation program at the College of William and Mary.

Eye On Education publishes practical reference books for teachers, principals, administrators, and other educators on topics such as literacy, professional development, educational leadership, and school improvement.
